

Strategic Partnerships Between US-Spain Companies

Objectives

Inform US and Spanish company representatives that cooperation, if intelligently structured, can benefit the industrial partners and service the needs of their domestic defense establishments

Convince companies they should reach out to potential partners

Convince government officials industrial cooperation can serve the needs of their military forces